A high-angle, warm-toned photograph of a family in a modern living room. A man in a brown sweater and light pants stands on a large, light-colored woven rug, reaching out towards a small child in a white shirt and brown pants who is walking towards him. A woman in a white shirt and pants sits on a light-colored sectional sofa, holding a cup. The room features a wooden coffee table with a plant, a bowl of lemons, and a small cup. A long wooden shelf with books and a lamp is in the background. Sunlight streams in from a window on the left, casting shadows. A large white triangle in the top right corner contains the word "Home".
